Part of the Academic Regulations

Panskura Banamali College (Autonomous)
(w.e.f. 2018-2019)
and

FIRST AMENDMENT made to the ACADEMIC REGULATIONS
(With effect from the Session 2020-2021)

Clause-26. SELF-VERIFICATION OF ANSWER SCRIPTS (SAS) BY THE STUDENTS & RE-VIEW

There is a provision for inspection of the evaluated answer scripts by the examinees themselves:

26.1 Application for self-verification of the answer scripts by the examinees themselves will be called for by the Controller of Examination (COE) within seven (7) working days after the publication of the results.

26.2 To avail themselves of the self-verification of the answer scripts (SAS) facility, examinees need to submit an application in a prescribed proforma (Form-08, Part A) to the COE and pay the requisite fees by the deadline set in the call for SAS. Such verification facility is permissible for a maximum of 2 paper(s) evaluated in a given semester.

26.3 There would not be any such verification facility for practical paper or project/dissertation   paper.

26.4 This facility is offered for both Regular/Arrear/Backlog or supplementary papers (ESE theoretical papers only).

26.5 There will not be any requirement of minimum cut-off marks to be eligible for SAS.

26.6 At the time of verification by the student, photography without permission is prohibited.

26.7 Post-SAS response (may include claims for change/rectification) is to be submitted to the COE in a prescribed proforma (Form-08, Part B) within two (02) working days after SAS. These responses will be considered by the departmental committee; and finally the committee would send reports to the Controller's office. Late submission of such response may lead to the termination of the whole process.

26.8 Review: Alternatively, a student may directly apply for re-view/re-examination. In this case the applicant should apply to the CoE in a prescribed proforma (Form-09) by the stipulated deadline as notified after the publication of results.

26.9 Such facility is permissible for the maximum of two (2) papers in a given semester provided s/he has scores the minimum pass mark of 40% in the remaining papers not being applied for Review.

26.10 Re-Examination/re-view is applicable only for theoretical papers of different end semester examinations of three years B.A. /B.Sc. /B.Com., B.C.A and two years P.G. & Training Courses. Re-examination/ Re-view is not permissible for internal assessment, practical & tutorial examinations, project work/dissertation and backlog papers.

26.11 In re-examination of papers for any end-semester examinations (ESE), the marks/credit points awarded by the re-examiner in a paper will be taken as the final marks/credit points obtained by the candidate in that paper.

Applying for Review would mean cancellation of the previous marks/credit points. The post-review marks/credit points would be final, no matter whether found more/less than or equal to the previous marks/credit points. If there is a difference of more than 15% marks of the full marks in the paper between the first examiner and the reviewer, then the answer script will be sent to the third examiner and the average of two closer marks thus received, will stand as his final marks.

26.11 It's advisable for any examinee exercising RTI not to apply for these above-mentioned SAS provisions or for direct review in order to avoid complications.

Clause-27. CANCELLATION OF RESULTS.

27.1 A candidate may apply for cancellation of his / her result of any given semester entirely (in the prescribed format, Form-10) to the Controller of Examinations within 15 (fifteen) days after receiving mark sheet for the improvement of his/ her results. However, there will be no provision for cancelling result of any single subject/paper in any case.

27.2 In all cases, cancellation of result will be counted as one chance lost. In case the candidate apply for the cancellation of results of the final semester, he/she needs to apply to the CoE in a prescribed format attaching the copies of the mark sheet/grade card and the admit card. The final semester candidates applying for such cancellation shall have to surrender their original mark sheet along with the application. They can apply for cancellation provided the time needed to clear those outstanding courses never exceeds the permitted span of the registration period.
